Some ways to use these notes: Write a story and keep it; write and then submit to the website; write and then mail it to WhoWeLost/PO Box 7031/Louisville, KY 40257 (we will input it for you).

Who did you lose?

Why is it important to you to write about them?

Story Title:

(Keep it brief. Example: "My Grandmother's Porch, Ithaca, NY 1971" or "His Guitar" or "Bishop David Graduation Reunion.")

Tell a story about who you lost:

(The story can be big like a significant remembered event. Or a distinct, small memory, like a shared joke, a song, a recipe, a game, a saying, a treasured time and place, or a long-ago memory that has stayed with you and always will. Remember the details that matter to you.)
